Grand Knights Report

Brothers,

Well We Made It! The busy time of our year has passed. We are in the Home Stretch of the last quarter our our Fraternal Year. It is also the time when you get to decide who you would like to run the council for the next year. In April we ask our nomination committee to help us find officers for the next year. In May we open the floor to nominations. In June we hold elections. And in July we have installation of officers.

Our Nomination committee we be appointed at this month's business meeting and will be led by the DGK. If you are a third degree member and would like to hold a council office position, please contact DGK Dennis Hughes.

Our next major program will be the Garage Sale in June. Donated items will start to be collected now.

State Convention is the first weekend of May. You have just a few days to get registered and I encourage you all to attend.

Thanks in advance for all your time and efforts.

Need a Ride?

Are you in need of a ride in order to attend our council meetings? Let Ed Newell (720-255-6944) know and our council will try and connect you with someone in your area, who is able to drive you to the meetings.

From The Chaplain

Excerpt from:

IOANNES PAULUS PP. II
DIVES IN MISERICORDIA

In the name of Jesus Christ crucified and risen, in the spirit of His messianic mission, enduring in the history of humanity, we raise our voices and pray that the Love which is in the Father may once again be revealed at this stage of history, and that, through the work of the Son and Holy Spirit, it may be shown to be present in our modern world and to be more powerful than evil: more powerful than sin and death. We pray for this through the intercession of her who does not cease to proclaim "mercy...from generation to generation," and also through the intercession of those for whom there have been completely fulfilled the words of the Sermon on the Mount: "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy."(Mt. 5:7)

FAMILY OF THE MONTH

Brother Jim Knoblauch,

Jim holds the Council office of Guard and is the Community Service Program Director. Jim also teaches fourth grade Sunday school at the church. Jim's wife Karyn is a kindergarten teacher in the Cherry Creek School district. Karyn participates in the Alter and Rosary Society and is on the Parish Welcome Committee for new parishioners. Their children are James 12, Peter 10 and Lillian 6, James plays baseball and is an Altar Boy in training. Peter plays lacrosse and is in CCD. Lillian plays soccer and is also in CCD. As a family they participate in multiple Council and Parish Activities and events. The children are active in the middle school youth group at the parish. Jim and his family routinely participate in our council events with the kids helping in the kitchen with both serving and dishes. Thanks for all you do Jim, Karyn, Jack, Peter and Lillian.

Knight of the Month

Building the Domestic Church

Because our children may be called to become spouses and parents, we want to help them understand the type of love that is necessary in marriage and family life.

All of us are called to self-giving love. Understanding that we are called to such love in each of our relationships can be difficult, especially for teenagers and young adults. They often define a relationship's worth by the feelings or emotions they experience.

Immature romantic love — such as a teen's first crush — shows love in an emotional stage. It can be fleeting and fickle, but it may also lead to the important element of loving friendship. In this latter stage, each person wants the best for the other and for themselves. The move from "I" to "we" in a romantic relationship becomes an integral step toward the self-surrender and personal commitment required for a successful marriage and start of a family.

Helping others to navigate and come to understand such deep emotions of friendship and love can be one of the greatest challenges and rewards a family can face.

Meditation

From an address of Pope Francis given on July 28, 2013.

God calls you to make definitive choices, and he has a plan for each of you: to discover that plan and to respond to your vocation is to move toward personal fulfillment. God calls each of us to be holy, to live his life, but he has a particular path for each one of us. Some are called to holiness through family life in the sacrament of marriage. Today, there are those who say that marriage is out of fashion. Is it out of fashion? In a culture of relativism and the ephemeral, many preach the importance of "enjoying" the moment. They say that it is not worth making a life-long commitment, making a definitive decision "forever," because we do not know what tomorrow will bring. I ask you, instead, to be revolutionaries ... to rebel against this culture that sees everything as temporary and that ultimately believes you are incapable of responsibility, that believes you are incapable of true love.

1. Do I share Pope Francis' confidence in me, that I am capable of true love and responsibility? Can I recognize the virtues that I need to develop in order to nurture my relationships with my spouse and my family?
2. What is an "ephemeral love," and how is it different from a lasting and committed love? How does lasting love affect other members of a family?
3. How does our family complete its "mission" to guard love, reveal love or communicate love?

Family Project

Speak with your children about your first date.

- Tell them about what first made you notice each other.
- Describe where you went.
- Talk about how this initial attraction grew into a deeper friendship and then authentic love.

Finally, tell your children about your marriage and all of the transitions it involved. Share with them what it was like when you were first married and when you became parents. Explain how you dealt with hard times and celebrated happier moments. Afterward, look through old photos, tracing your relationship from when you first met to today.

Scripture Reading of the Month

Psalm 16: 1-2, 8-11

God will make clear the path for his faithful Keep me safe, O God;
in you I take refuge. I say to the LORD,
you are my LORD, you are my only good.

I keep the LORD always before me; with him at my right hand, I shall never be shaken.
Therefore my heart is glad, my soul rejoices; my body also dwells secure,
For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, nor let your devout one see the pit.
You will show me the path to life, abounding joy in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever.

St. Augustine's Prayer for the Sick and Distressed

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And for all your love's sake. Amen.
